One advantage of neighborhood city council meetings is that council members learn where the eyesores are. Vintage Hills residents complained Monday night at the meeting at Valley View School about a couple of littered sites in their neighborhood where development has been long promised and junk has been accumulating. The city said it will call the appropriate property owners, perhaps look into a new kind of abatement ordinance to insure the lots are cleaned up.

Both sides heat up during fire hearing

PLEASANTON — The appeal hearing of Fire Lieutenant George Withers, protesting his demotion from captain, picked up steam on both sides of the fence yesterday.

The hearing, continued from last week, saw Withers' superior, Captain Bert Cherry, the acting fire chief, on the witness stand all day. He will be up again at 9 a.m. sharp today as the city has three more witnesses remaining to be called: Public Safety Director Walt McCloud, VCSD Fire Chief Phil Phillips, and former Herald and News reporter John Oliver. The latter two were witnesses at the accidental burn of Fallon House which figures in the hearing.

Withers was demoted in rank allegedly because he failed to order the Fallon House fire doused when he learned it was a mistake and for 14 months of allegedly poor job perforamance.

The fire was barely mentioned ysesterday, but Cherry dwelt on many specific points of the allegedly poor job performance.

Withers needed to show improvement in the quality of his work, knowledge of his assignment, initiative, and dependability, said Cherry.

At staff meetings, Withers responded poorly to criticism and left meetings with an idea of the proceedings different from anyone else, said Cherry.

At fire stations under his command, the morale was poor, efficiency low, and the maintenance of equipment left something to be desired, said Cherry.

"I don't believe he could do the work with his lack of knowledge," said Cherry. "I and the acting Acting Director of Public Safety (Walt McCloud) had to bring things to his attention. He didn't exercise initiative. He didn't take care of problems when things were small.

"It was hard for Withers to understand correction. It took more time to get the point across than it did with other staff officers," said Cherry.

Things improved after Captain Doug Cracraft took over as fire suppression officer in on December 1, 1975, said Cherry. He established monthly meeetings and sought to "correct deficiencies."

"I don't think Withers is an unsatisfactory employee," said Withers. "I checked areas (on the evaluation form) which showed that he needed to improve."

Withers' attorney, Alan Davis of San Francisco, questioned whether Cherry had any right to evaluate Withers' performance. Both are captains, both make the same salary and the city council at the time had not authorized Cherry to be Withers' superior, said Davis.

Cherry admitted that the council did not authorize the change, but that McCloud told him in a private meeting that his duties would include a superior responsibility over Withers and the other two captains.

Davis tried to imply that since Withers has been demoted, the only captain who now qualifies for the new position of battalion chief, a slot requested by Cherry, is Cracraft. Cherry admitted Cracraft is the only captain remaining, but said that at the present time he has no one specific in mind for the position.

City Attorney Ken Scheidig representing the city administration which demoted Withers, said that there is no question but the city can evaluate Withers. The issue is whether Withers has been doing his job.

City learned about junk

PLEASANTON — Nearly 40 residents met the city council Monday night at the second of a series of informal neighborhood city council meetings designed to improve communication between council and citizen.

The questions from the audience covered a broad range from concern over the proposed Del Valle Parkway to questions about possible lack of parking around the future Vintage Hills Park.

The Del Valle Parkway will run from Hopyard Road over to Stanley Boulevard and First Street and along the east bank of the Arroyo Del Valle to Vineyard Avenue out past Vintage Hills.

It will be a four lane, divided road and at least one resident in the audience Monday night thought it might be a speedway posing a danger to schoolchildren.

"Why solve one problem (too much traffic on Vineyard Avenue) by creating another one," asked one resident. Councilman Ken Mercer said the road would not have a 50 mile per hour speed limit, but would resemble West Las Positas Boulevard, which also is a four lane divided road.

Councilman Frank Brandes said the road is in the general plan, but specific plans for its design have not been adopted and it may be premature to assume the roadway would pose a problem.

Mercer talked about the city's plans to parlay local funds into state and federal subsidies which could pay off on a six to one basis for development of Vintage Hills Park, Mission Hills Park and Sports and Recreation Park.

One resident who noticed that the proposed Vintage Hills Park is in the middle of residential development asked whether the park would have any offstreet parking and seemed upset when he was told that there won't be any. Mercer said that Sports and Recreation Park is the only one in the city with offstreet parking.

Motorcycles are a problem on the undeveloped site now, said a resident. They won't be permitted there when the park is developed and if they are a problem now, residents should call the police, said Mercer.

What about providing motorcyclists with their own park, asked one neighbor. It has been tried at the fairground but the noise and dust bothered the horses in training there, said Mercer. There seems to be no suitable location in the city. However, Pleasanton has taken the $700 in off road vehicle tax subventions received from the state last year and pooled them with other cities and Alameda County to provide a gift to East Bay Regional Park District. The park system would use the money to find a suitable Eastbay site for a motorcycle park, said Mercer.

One audience member was curious about what the city is doing about "the 10,000 kids who hang around every night on Main Street." Mercer said the city has the Westwind Youth Center at Amador Community Park, but 90 per cent of the kids are on Main Street "because there's a show." After the 10 p.m. curfew most of the high school age kids leave and older people are there "until the police chase them out."

27 idle acres

Unused Dolan site targeted

Murray School District trustees and some district residents are beginning to zero-in on the 27-acre Dolan school site in Silvergate, and attendant financial matters tied to that unused and apparently unneeded acreage off of Castilian Road.

The land has been in the district portfolio for the better part of a decade. The intermediate school planned for the site evaporated when voters defeated a bond issue last March that would have provided funds for part of the construction.

However, bond monies left over from a successful '72 bond, the district's debt to the state, and why the site was retained and graded in light of continuing declines in enrollment are now coming to the fore.

Also under question now is what use the Dublin School pool property can be put to.

The land use subjects were but two in a weighty list reviewed and discussed before an audience of 170 persons Monday night at Donlon School in Pleasanton.

Complicating near future discussions on the Dolan site, its finances and usage of the Dublin pool property is the resignation effective Dec. 1 of business manager Phillip Chubb. His letter of resignation reflecting a desire to take advantage of early retirement was read by Superintendent Donald Williams Monday night. His resignation was accepted by the board unanimously.

Chubb went on vacation status Monday and will not be back until Oct. 27.

In discussions on the Dolan site, Williams told the board "We have tried to have the Valley Community Services District use it for a recreational area, but they are not interested in land they don't own."

Williams indicated an unspecified party is in the process of putting together an offer for use of the land just west of San Ramon Valley Road.

"But I'm not sure the sale of the Dolan site would reduce our debt to the state," Williams added.

Williams referred to recent legislation by Assemblyman Leory Greene which makes land taxable after five years if the district holding the land has demonstrated it has no plans for the land in the forseeable future.

On the Dublin pool land, board president Ted Woy said the district could put the facility up for sale or "destroy it" after a period of time if no takers come forward. "Right now it is an unattractive nuisance." The facility in question is located on Vomac Road in Dublin next to Dublin School.

Woy said the district could initially advertise use of the pool by community groups, adding that any group would be responsible for bringing the facility up to standards and maintaining it. He said the district would consider a lease agreement.

Two parties expressing interest in the pool in recent months have dropped out.

Earlier in the meeting, Murray Teachers Association president Bob Kroetch told the board the boycott of extra activities by teachers was continuing. He chided the board and its counsel, Keith Breon, for allegedly "holding back" step and column salary increases.

The board also heard presentations from Lenore Holmes and Jerry Herrington of Residents - In - Action, "demanding" improvement to the academic program at all schools, no conversion of Dublin School or Frederiksen School (to seventh - eighth grade use), and no increase in busing "over what is required for improvements to Donlon School."

The report and recommendation of the Citizens Advisory Committee was presented by chairman Bob Scheppler. The CAC has recommended conversion of Dublin School to seventh - eighth grade use starting in September of 1977, with attendant redistricting of K-6 students to Fallon, Murray and Nielsen.

Woy said the board would make "some sort of decision" on the report by the second meeting in November.

In other business, the board received an in-depth report on enrollments (by class) and staffing, discussed student-teacher ratios at junior high schools in other districts (all of which have declining enrollments), received materials from Williams showing requirements for the position of business manager as formulated by other districts, and set the first meeting in November to discuss the problem of declining enrollment.

Trustee Bob Foster also asked Williams if a letter to the County Grand Jury would have to be discussed in open or closed session. The staff was directed to check with county counsel.

Foster gave no indication as to what the subject of any letter would dwell on.

The board also learned the annual audit is due Nov. 15. —by Al Fischer

Doubtful future for Stoneridge center

PLEASANTON — Councilman William Herlihy expressed skepticism that Stoneridge will build a regional center in Pleasanton and certainly not a center with five major tenants.

He made the statement while talking to approximately 40 residents at one of a series of informal neighborhood city council meetings, this one at Valley View School in Vintage Hills.

Herlihy pointed to simple mathematics for his skepticism. The valley has more than 100,000 residents now and the shopping center developer has said his group needs 150,000 to be successful.

Pleasanton will grow at a rate of 625 residents a year during the next 20 years because of the EO growth rate imposed by the federal government. Neighboring communities will grow slowly with comparable figures.

However, in contrast to Herlihy's statement, Stoneson Development Corporation has said it will break ground for the first phase of the center next year with plans for three major tenants and 100 small shops. The developer appears satisfied the center would pull far enough beyond the valley to hit the magic number of 150,000.

"I'm not sure they will ever come," Herlihy told the audience. "If you read the Wall Street Journal, that type of center is not being built anymore with five anchor tenants. I would like to see the downtown developed as our subregional center," said Herlihy.

Someone in the audience remarked that Dublin has done a much better job of attracting commercial development than Pleasanton has.

It's true, said Herlihy, if you just look at the dollars and cents of it. That occurred mainly because land is cheaper in Dublin and the parcels are big, unlike Pleasanton's downtown, where lots are small. In Dublin, industry and commerce don't have to pay city taxes, either. But take a look at the kind of commercial they have, he said. Pleasanton's commercial development looks much better, said Herlihy.

"You may have to wait longer for commercial development in your neighborhoood, but it will be worth the wait," said Herlihy.

Residents wondered when H.C. Elliott will build the shopping center he has promised on the big vacant lot at Pico Avenue and Palomino Drive. Herlihy said that Elliott promised a shopping center "soon" four years ago when he first got on the council, but "like all developers, he always has a shopping center on the hook". Elliott's 14 acre lot at the corner of Pico and Palomino is a focus of neighborhood concern right now. Several residents have called the city to complain that it is being turned into a "garbage dump". Director of Public Works Field Services Arnold Eaton said he checked out the field and called H.C. Elliott who is expected to view it personally today.

This touched off a long discussion about whether the city could go in and abate unsightly vacant lots, then bill the property owner, just as it now can with tall weeds on vacant lots.

One resident said that Wheaton, Illinois, where he previously resided, had an a ordinance which did exactly that. Another resident said an Eastbay suburb had a similar law which even went so far as dictating that residents shall keep their own yards in proper order. The resident cautioned his neighbors to give that some deep thought before they considered any ordinance like it, which prompted Vice - mayor Joyce LeClaire to quip that she had better do her gardening this weekend.

City Attorney Ken Scheidig said that Pleasanton is limited by state law about what it can and can't require of property owners to keep up their property and any comparisons to other cities could be misleading. He will research the law to see if the city can do more work than weed abatement in unsightly vacant lots.

Mayor Robert Philcox made a pitch for industrial development by urging voters to approve Ballot Measure U in November.

The ballot measure would raise funds to finance construction of the LAVWMA pipeline which will have two million gallons a day capacity reserved for Pleasanton industry. The local sewer service charge will rise by more than $3 per month to pay for it, but in the estimation of Councilman Frank Brandes it will be offset partially by taxes paid by the new industries.

POST OFFICES CLOSE MONDAY

Post offices throughout the county will be closed Monday, Oct. 11, in the official observance of Columbus Day.

There will be no regular delivery, postal representatives said, except for special delivery. Crews will pick up mail from local mail boxes, though.

Pleasanton's new post office will open Saturday, Oct. 16, with "will call" service between 10 a.m. and noon. The 4300 Black Ave. site starts full service on Monday, Oct. 18.

School board meets at 8

PLEASANTON — Tonight's Pleasanton Joint School District board meeting, which includes a report on the K-8 classroom music program, has been moved back to 8 p.m.

Trustees convene at the school administration offices at 123 Main St.

The board will be operating with a maximum of four members for another month as newly-appointed trustee Dennis Reidy cannot be seated until after a 30-day period has passed, as prescribed by law.

This period gives any members of the community who might object to an appointment an opportunity to express themselves.

The report on classroom music had been requested by trustees.

Board members will also hear reports on transportation, summer school and Outdoor Education. They are also slated to act on an interdistrict attendance agreement with Sunol Glen School, approve student teacher agreements with San Jose State and Cal State University Hayward, approve a University of California Field Service agreement, authorize a trustee account for the Outdoor Education program and accept a book donation from the Bicentennial Committee of Pleasanton.

CAC chairman Bob Scheppler presents report recommending conversion of Dublin School to seventh-eighth grade use, as Superintendent Donald Williams and Assistant Superintendent Heinz Gewing listen. Also addressing Murray School board and audience at Donlon School Monday was Bob Kroetch, president of the Murray Teachers Association. Overflow audience of 170 attended meeting. (Times photos)

City warns on parking

PLEASANTON — The slurry seal man is coming.

Residents in three sectors of the city are advised to be on the alert for street crews who will start this week laying a protective coat on several streets.

Between 7 a.m. and 4 p.m. on the day specified, no parking will be allowed in those blocks where seal coating is to be applied. Parents are also advised to keep children out of the brown, gooey stuff, which can badly soil clothing.

Until the slurry dries, no driving on those streets will be permitted, no water should be allowed to drain onto the street and no bike or foot traffic should touch the fresh seal.

On Thursday of this week, the city crews will be seal coating Cortez Court, Peru Court, Bivar Court, Mendoza Court, Christobal Way and Alvarado Street.

On Friday, Oct. 8 the crews will work Cid Way, Francisco Street and Kolln from Nevis to the north end.

On Tuesday, Oct. 12, watch out for Walnut Drive, Lansing Court, Arlon Alington Court, Arlington Drive, Mavis Drive, Gerard Court and Zwissig Court.

Burglar arrest inside Dean's Cafe

PLEASANTON — Acting on a nearby resident's phone tip, police yesterday arrested a transient inside Dean's Cafe at 620 Main St. after he apparently tampered with the cash register, police report.

According to reports, a Main Street resident reported hearing noises inside the cafe about 2 a.m. Tuesday. Police walked across the street and surrounded the exits.

Officer Greg Gill approached the south door when he heard noises inside the building, but could see nothing. Gill peered inside a three - foot square hole punched into the door, and saw a man trying to enter a large refrigerator.

The suspect momentarily refused police orders to halt, but quickly complied after seeing a second policeman, it was reported.

Police said the man apparently kicked a hole in a door and crawled through to gain entrance into the cafe. The cash register had been disturbed, but there was no money inside to be taken.

The cafe's back door frame had been cracked and separated from the door, police said. The rear door had been unbarred, unlocked and standing ajar.

Jeffrey Lane Smith, 19, no given address, was booked at Santa Rita Jail on suspicion of felony burglary.

Youth arrested in cigarette machine burglary

PLEASANTON — Police arrested a 16-year-old Pleasanton youth after he was found allegedly breaking into a cigarette machine at Pleasanton Shell Station on Santa Rita Road by the owner.

Robert Ruckteschler told police he was in the station office about 6:15 p.m. Monday when he heard noises in the display room and went to investigate. There he found a suspect standing near the machine with $2.40 he had apparently taken from its coin box, police said.

A second suspect, acting as a look-out, fled when Ruckteschler approached. His name was given to police by the suspect in custody.

The youth was booked on suspicion of misdemeanor theft and released to his parents. The second youth is being sought by police.

Fair unit votes against dog racing initiative

The county fair board's racing committee last night unanimously recommended "no" on the greyhound racing initiative.

The action, and a companion motion by DeWitt Wilson to not consider dog racing for the Pleasanton facility, will now go to the Western Fairs Association and full fair board.

Alzie and Mervin Roberts of Hayward, who are greyhound dog breeders and race them at tracks throughout the west, questioned what they felt was the committee's closed mind on the subject.

Roberts asked secretary - manager Lee Hall how the fair association could show a profit by charging just $25 a month for stabling horses.

Roberts claims all other stabling setups charge a minimum of $50 a month. Roberts asked if the board depends on horse racing for the fair's economic survival. "Many facilities can accommodate horse racing in the day and dog racing in the night," said Roberts.

Hall and committee chairman George McDermott both opined it is not economically feasible to support dog racing at the Pleasanton grounds.

Lowell Garrett of San Leandro also spoke in favor of dog racing.

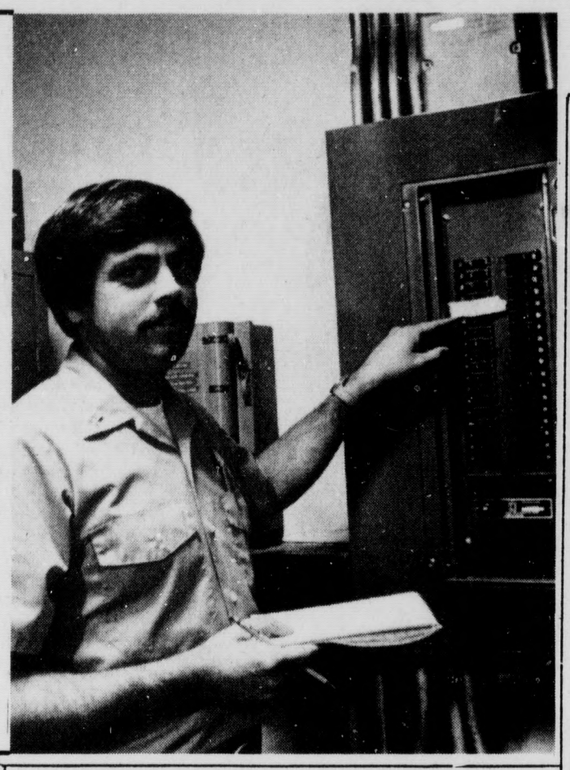
Katie Moore of Pets and Pals thanked the committee for its stand.

Hall also gave a report on construction of new mutuel machines.

The panel also discussed at length the economics of the horse training program.

Fire week

This is Fire Prevention Week and it is a good time to check your own fire defenses according to Captain Jon Ulricksen. He is with the division of the Valley Community Services District Fire Department located at 9399 Fircrest Ln., San Ramon. Ulricksen points out a taped circuit breaker that is a potential fire hazard. The tape prevents the breaker from releasing in case the circuit becomes overloaded.



School chief balks at talk with bargainer

PLEASANTON— Pleasanton schools superintendent Bruce Newlin has had second thoughts on a discussion - debate concerning collective bargaining with teachers unit leader Tom Zach at the Amador High School auditorium.

Pending a meeting with Zach, who is president of the Amador Valley Teachers Association, the program reset to Wednesday, Oct. 13 is now in doubt.

Newlin's reservations, as expressed Tuesday, concern the format and the possible makeup of the audience.

The original format centered on opening presentations of approximately 20 minutes in length on SB 160, the collective bargaining bill.

Knapsack on her back

Teen enjoys Europe unencumbered

By LILLY AULT

Traveling with a knapsack on her back and a year and a half of working helped Lucie Newcomb of Pleasanton to secure an education in Europe this summer.

It is Lucie's feeling that "if you set your mind to do something, it can be done." It was an extension class at San Jose State that enabled the Amador High School graduate to obtain three weeks of schooling in London and five weeks of learning the cultural of the country by traveling.

Lucie found communication to be no problem for her. Her knowledge of French helped her many times, but "English is more international now than it was before," she said.

"I never realized," she continued, "until I was in another country, how great it is that numbers are the same in every language."

In her travels, the ardent journeyer tried to spend the best part of her time in the "older" parts of the settlements, as she "wanted to see authentic culture." In order to find and enjoy the authentic foods of a country and have the proper atmosphere, Lucie also ate in the "older" parts of town.

To save money, the traveler found herself doing a lot of walking and even slept out at night a few times when conditions prevailed to do so. Her knapsack eliminated the carrying of suitcases and also made for easier traveling.

Trains were her main source of transportation when she did "ride."

"I love productions," stated Lucie and this she proved by seeing 14 plays in 16 days. "They were all just great."

London was "very appealing" to the American tourist. "I thought about staying," she said. But in checking the job situation, Lucie found salaries to be low, yet the cost of living was high. "It's mainly secretarial work that is offered to the women."

With the cost of living so high and low salaries, Lucie felt most of the people had to hold down two jobs, generally working during the day and again at night.

The young lady felt London was "very safe" and went on to state that the crime rate was low compared to the United States. "The British are very friendly and courteous to the public," she reminised.

While in France, Lucie was fortunate to be able to have dinner with a French family. "It was a good insight to their home living," she said. "And when you are a guest in a French home, you are truly a guest as they go all out to please their visitor."

The happy traveler found it quite "amusing" to see so many "T" shirts with American wording dominating the design. "I wanted to get something very European," she said, "but it was impossible!" Jeans, according to the college student, are a popular fashion. A pair of custom - made jeans can cost as much as $50.

During her travels, Lucie had the pleasure of meeting one of the prosecutors for the Nuremburg trials and his wife whom she found "very interesting and fascinating to talk with." The fact that the gentleman was one of the prosecutors, "just came out in the conversation we were having," she said.

The Pleasantonite was in the midst of her traveling when the Chowchilla kidnaping was taking place at home. "Every paper carried the story in their headlines," she said. "It was really something to see 'Livermore" in print so often when I was so far from it all."

Lucie Newcomb of Pleasanton is back from her summer studies in Europe with a knapsack full of mementos, including programs from the 14 plays she saw while in London.

From the standpoint of a Catholic, Lucie "thoroughly enjoyed attending High Mass at the catherdal." It was a beautiful blend of the old tradition, Latin, with the new approach of the Gospel and readings in English," she said.

The academic lover by nature, who plans to attend the University of California at Berkeley this year continuing her study of humanism, was the only undergraduate student attending the classes in London. "The rest were all teachers having at least one degree," she said. "Some were there because they were really interested in increasing their knowledge on the subject but others were in attendance just to get a degree to change their income status."

All students and teachers shared the same quarters as well as as well as eating together and attending classes in the same building. "It was really neat," she recalled, "being able to chat informally with the teachers and other students and then all of us being in class together."

If Lucie could have her wish, she feels she would like to teach in Europe. Because very few students reach the plateau of higher education, "it's not a mass production of teaching," she says. She would also like to attend graduate school in London, but has been advised to check out the legality of its being accredited in the United States.

The former stringer for this newspaper when she was a senior at Amador High School reporting school news, hopes to teach college English and humanism after graduation from college.

Lucie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Newcomb of Golf Road, Pleasanton.

SR's presidential hopeful seeks funds

Richard C. Collins, independent candidate for president from San Ramon, has announced a fundraising technique that he says will raise millions of campaign dollars.

"To establish myself as a serious presidential contender I am now going to operate on a level which everyone can understand. I have learned that money establishes credibility, not merit, so I am going after money to put myself into a strong political position. My activities from this point on are going to explode into a major threat for Ford and Carter. So I can be that threat I intend to raise two million dollars in the next two months," Collins states.

"Ford has taxpayers' money which he can tap and Carter has his peanuts but I have an asset which they can't beat. I have my 'Angel Balls' and I will use them to win the presidency. Being the saintliest candidate (see last press release) and having Angel Balls to back it up, how can I lose?"

Collins went on to say he is stockpiling "several million" Angel Balls for mailing out in a week's time for maximum political effect, beginning Oct. 25. "That will give me one month to come from underdog to the leader of the pack and that's all I need to pull off the political upset of the year," he said.

"If you, the public, will financially support a candidate who has only the country to serve and not a political party to cater to, your small contribution of $2 or more will get you a matched pair of Angel Balls ($1 for one ball) and a virile and viable alternative candidate to the major party candidates."

Collins asks donations be sent to: R.C., P.O. Box 234, San Ramon, 94583.

CC candidate names aides

Fifth district supervisorial candidate Louise Giersch has announced the appointment of three local area coordinators.

Donald B. Doyle, San Ramon Valley chairman of the Louise Giersch for Supervisor Committee, named as aides Barrie W. Bormann, 367 Glen Arms Drive in Danville, Tom McManus, 641 Filbert St. in San Ramon, and Roberta Bloss, 1490 Laurenita Way in Alamo.

The trio of coordinators will be responsible for local campaign efforts in their respective areas, Doyle said.

A taped television debate between Giersch and fellow candidate Eric Hasseltine will be aired Thursday at 8 p.m. on channel 10 in the area south of Crow Canyon Road. John Arthur, managing editor of the Pittsburg Post - Dispatch, serves as moderator. Programming was arranged by Kent Rasmussen, delta area manager of Tele-Vue Systems, Inc.

DEMOS MEET

MARTINEZ — The final push for a Democratic victory Nov. 2 will be the main topic of business at Tuesday's meeting of the county Democratic Central Committee.

Democrats are invited to attend the meeting to discuss United Democratic Campaign plans. It begins at 8 p.m. in the county courthouse, Court and Main Streets, Martinez.

UAW nixes dog racing

The United Auto Workers has announced its opposition to Proposition 13, the dog racing initiative, and said it would "exert every effort by our political action organization to defeat what obviously is a hoax on the public."

UAW regional director Jerry Whipple said Prop. 13 was a "badly written, blatant attempt to enrich a handful of promoters at the expense of the working men and women of California.

"Pari-mutuel betting on dog races may sound like an easy way to pump new revenue into the state treasury but Prop. 13 would not contribute one cent to the state's general fund, which is the fiscal source of our benefits as residents of California.

"The money derived from betting on dog races here would mostly go toward programs that do not exist at this time and into the pockets of the promoters," said Whipple.

Whipple joined officials of more than 30 unions on the Labor Committee Against Prop. 13. The committee represents more than 500,000 workers in the state.

McCarthy's supporters spur drive

Major efforts are underway in California on behalf of Senator Eugene McCarthy for president in 1976.

The Valley Volunteers for McCarthy met last week at the home of Jerome Jones to plan the local McCarthy campaign.

McCarthy is on the general election ballot in more than 33 states and prospects are good that he will be on the ballot in all 50 states before election day.

The next meeting of Valley Volunteers for McCarthy will be held Oct. 6. Interested persons are urged to call 447-4388 for time, place and other information.

Hasseltine art auction

Eric Hasseltine extends an invitation to all residents of the Fifth Supervisorial District to attend an art show and auction on Saturday to benefit the Hasseltine for Supervisor campaign.

It will be held at the Danville Grange Hall on Diablo Road in Danville at 7 p.m. A $2 donation accompanies hors d'oeuvres and a no-host bar.

"We hope everyone will take this opportunity to meet Eric and view framed works of art by contemporary American and European artists," said Dori Davi, event chairperson. Included in the auction are oils, colorful lithographs, etchings, serigraphs and other mixed media.

Hasseltine, a Danville resident, said he hopes citizens from all communities in the fifth district will attend. "We're looking forward to a great evening," he said.

Hasseltine for Supervisor information may be obtained in Danville at 820-ERIC.

SR council candidate

Valley residents will have several opportunities to meet San Ramon town council candidate Claudia Nemir during the week, according to Bethany Hall, scheduling coordinator for the Nemir Town Council Committee.

A public coffee is scheduled for 8 p.m. Thursday at the home of Barbara Simmons, 30 Corwin Drive in Alamo. Interested persons are invited to call the hostess at 837-0394 for more information.

On Sunday, Nemir will appear at a "Meet Your Candidate" party sponsored by the Diablo Valley League of Women Voters. The 3-6 p.m. affair will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Lesher, Sally Ann Road in Orinda.

On Tuesday, Oct. 12, Nemir will serve pizza and meet voters at the Town Now fundraising family pizza party to be held at the Round Table Pizza, 480 F San Ramon Valley Blvd. in Danville from 5-10 p.m.

Nemir will appear Wednesday, Oct. 13 at 7:30 p.m. at the San Ramon Valley Unified School District Education Center on Old Orchard Drive in Danville. It is co-sponsored by the League of Women Voters and the Danville - Alamo AAUW.

The San Ramon Homeowners Association, California High School PFO, Country Club School PFO, Neil Armstrong PTA and Walt Disney PTA are co-sponsoring a candidates' night on Thursday, Oct. 14. It will be held in the multi - purpose room of Walt Disney School on Pine Valley in San Ramon beginning at 7:30 p.m.

For more information on the Nemir campaign, contact Bethany Hall at 837-7861.

Park board seeker nixes East Bay tie

Lee Lambert, candidate for director to the Livermore Area Recreation and Park District Board, said that "becoming a part of the East Bay Regional Park District would serve no advantage to the area currently served by LARPD."

A nine-year resident of Livermore, the 30-year-old Lambert says that joining EBRPD "would result in an increase of approximately 20 cents in the tax rate of Livermore residents without any additional facilities resulting from that additional tax.

"I doubt very much that EBRPD would develop facilities beyond that already completed at Shadow Cliffs and Del Valle. Those parks are available for use currently to residents of LARPD," Lambert said.

"I have discussed the development of regional parks at great length with LARPD staff and have been assured that additional regional parks will be developed by LARPD as the need becomes apparent and the population of the district can support them."

In favor of San Ramon City

The key question is, as always, "How do we protect the status quo?"

The problem is that San Ramon Valley will never be quite the same as it was. That sylvanic scene has changed markedly in the memory of those who recall that uncluttered space, two decades ago. And even the rural - urban setting that persists is already locked into another great expanse of homes, schools and services.

So "protecting the status quo" now becomes a matter of making the best from what is already assured. And that can be a challenge as exciting, and certainly as worthwhile, as any farmer fight to protect those agricultural fields of yesteryear.

The Times believes that, just as farmers were the champions of land they owned, today's home owner is the stoutest defender of the suburban scene he now shares. Just because there are more of us is no reason to expect suburbanites are less determined, or less intelligent.

San Ramon Valley is one of the last great stretches of lovely open land within this new urban corridor. The desire of thousands to live there, to buy expensive homes there, is testimony to that vale's beauty. The protection of what is left, or even enhanced, within San Ramon Valley is of concern to us all. The responsibility, however, must be left to those who live there, who own the homes, who own the land.

By creating their own city, home owners would be exercising the most direct and the most effective control available to them in our democratic system.

Yes, we know that home rule is never perfect. Yes, we acknowledge the problems that have confronted those downstream cities of Pleasanton and Livermore. But there is strong evidence that the problems of these cities would be far worse, if we were left to county government to meet our every need, zone our every acre.

San Ramon has built - in advantages as it approaches cityhood. Danville is a fine, thriving urban base from which to expand. Alamo and San Ramon offer "character" of their own. The Valley is well defined, and its history is firmly established.

But above all, there are the people. It is our experience that San Ramon Valley offers the pride - in - community essential to home rule. What is needed to is to meld that pride into a set of common goals, then to work together for the total good, rather than separately for each home owner's rights.

San Ramon Valley has that opportunity on Nov. 2. We believe it is a challenge worthy of the land, and the people.

BART mistake

Some months ago this newspaper suggested, editorially, that some of those closest to the Bay Area Rapid Transit District were prepared to acknowledge the $2 billion venture had been a space - age disaster. It was, our informants suggested, "a costly lesson which will never be repeated anywhere in the nation."

The Times was slapped on the wrist for those remarks. Even an energetic BART - watcher like Livermore's Bob Allen noted "we have the system, and we must learn to make the best of it."

Now there is a University of California study to suggest that BART earns a passing grade in public relations, but on nothing more.

The Institute of Urban and Regional Development at UC Berkeley conducted the six - year study into public transit and related items. Those findings have recently been published in the current issue of The Public Interest.

BART, that study concludes, "may become the first of a series of multi-billion - dollar mistakes scattered from one end of the continent to the other."

And then, "If BART has achieved any sort of unquestionable success, it was as a public relations exercise."

And, as The Times had noted earlier, the UC study suggests the best thing to come from our two billion dollar transit flinger is not to make the same mistake again, anywhere in the country.

None of which is designed to make taxpayers feel any better. But it could almost be two billion well spend if we have learned to suspect any and all findings handed down by those who work and invest and politik in the Inner City, and who are willing to spend any amount to protect their investment. Especially when its our money they're spending.

San Ramon JC's for city

Editor, The Times:

This Bicentennial year is an opportune time for the citizens of the San Ramon Valley to rekindle their spirit of Americanism. Government by the People is one of the great institutions serving as a cornerstone of our great country. The San Ramon Valley Jaycees believe that the institution of local controls via cityhood would provide the trust and understanding necessary to ensure the citizens of the valley local expression of their future.

The time is NOW for the sleeping giant of public pride and positive individual participation to awaken. We invite the citizens of the valley to unite with the San Ramon Valley Jaycees in rekindling our pride in local control.

The San Ramon Valley Jaycees unanimously endorse the efforts of the Taxpayers for Local Control (T.L.C.) Committee as being a positive step for the valley community. We encourage individual citizens of the valley and other service organizations to join us in initiating positive action for incorporation by providing campaign contributions to T.L.C. and by holding informational meetings on the benefits of incorporation.

A better understanding of each other, our government, and ourselves will enable the valley to enter incorporation in a positive manner. The San Ramon Valley Jaycees urge the passage of Measure K on November 2 as being vital in helping the valley to become a better area in which to live.

President
San Ramon Valley Jaycees

Hindsight/Foresight

Debate hyping

It is highly unlikely that tonight's second of three Gerald Ford - Jimmy Carter Presidential Debates emanating from San Francisco will solve anything or give anyone a better insight into the candidates' respective thought processes.

Though we may stand accussed of thinking provincially, what is more exciting is the prospect of a Newlin - Zach discussion - debate on collective bargaining and issues pertinent to Pleasanton teachers.

I am also excited at what the San Ramon Valley Unified School District is going to do starting next week at California High School in San Ramon. That is, a budget processes informational meeting for the benefit of taxpayers in the district.

More positive results will be derived from both than any number of presidential debates.

For, in the short or long run, the Ford - Carter squareoff is over - shadowed by the media's insatiable drive to determine a "winner" or "analyze" who looked better.

The San Ramon school board is deserving of credit for setting up the series of informational meetings on budget processes. True, some pressure was applied by various citizen groups but the reaction by the SR board and administration has been both positive and without delay.

We would recommend similar informational meetings in the other valley districts.

For San Ramon residents, the meeting on budget procedures is slated for Tuesday, Oct. 12 at 7:30 p.m. in the California High School theater on Broadmoor.

The following night, barring another change, will see Newlin, superintendent of the Amador - Pleasanton schools, discussing collective bargaining and Pleasanton contract issues with Zach, president of the Amador Valley Teachers Association.

Tentative time and site is 7:30 p.m. at the Amador Valley High School auditorium.

It is not necessary for Newlin or any member of the administration to do this. The fact the Pleasanton leadership has acceded to the request from AVTA proves they have always been ready to meet teachers half way.

This writer is not among those who feels that, just because we are operating under SB 160 (collective bargaining), we must choose up sides and start or propagate a "war of words."

Despite declarations from other speakers to the contrary, we see no reason for putting aside the "friendly relations" that have truly existed in the past.

While we are sorry to see two valley school districts (Amador and Murray) seek mediation from the Educational Employment Relations Board (EERB), it is undertandable why the teacher units are doing so.

Jim Eaton of Amador, Bob Kroetch of Murray and Tom Zach of Pleasanton are excellent spokesmen for the groups they represent. They are not posturing, misinformed hell - raisers by any frame of reference. That is why the Pleasanton discussion - debate will work — and the San Ramon informational meeting is a big step in the right direction.

We can talk out and solve our problems on the local level and not be party to the national media hype.

Letters to the Times

Good fire dept.

Editor, The Times:

I wish to take this way of offering a "Special Thanks" to all the members of the Livermore Fire Dept. who responded to the fire at Wayside Chapel today.

The Fire Departments speedy response and their excellent manner in handling a blaze forty feet in the air on the steeple of the church kept us from having a major loss. The men kept the water flow into the church at a minimum, and spread tarpaulins on the floor to keep the rugs from being damaged by sparks, charcoal and water.

So to everyone from Chief Baird, Battalion Chiefs, Fire Prevention Bureau and down to the lowest paid fireman on duty in the City may I give my special "Thanks" and God Bless you. Also a special thank you to the nice neighbor who called in the fire.

Carl T. Carlin, Minister

To The Times:
(Attention Sue Vogelsanger)

We wish to thank you most sincerely for the splendid article you wrote and the picture you took that were printed in the Valley Times. This front page coverage has been of great value to us. In my door - to - door calling, I find that in a great many cases, I am already recognized by The Times article that preceded me. Thank you for this invaluable assistance. I believe God led in this whole matter.

We are now busily preparing for our first public worship service. In our home, we have been averaging about 14 persons. With God's help we hope we have 50 to 100 for the first public service. Join us in this prayer!

Happy Day!

No abracadabra

Editor, The Times:

She has style and class. Not only that, she is always visible, always accessible. She does not engage in such nefarious games as Abracadabra — now you see her, now you don't.

Her name is Valerie Raymond, and whether it is working with the League of Women Voters, Bay Area Government, or Land Use, Valerie gets the job done. She does not waste valuable time and energy indulging in a magic act, neither does she find it necessary to be puffed up by her own importance; therefore on November 2, I urge all Livermore voters to recognize Valerie Raymond at the polls.

So often in life our hard work and efforts go unrewarded. Tuesday, November 2, can be our day to let Valerie know we applaud and support her work. Let's work together and elect Valerie Raymond Supervisor of the First District.

Place of peace

Editor, The Times:

On behalf of the City of Pleasanton, the Cultural Arts Council and the Recreation Department, a great big thank you is in order for the Jaycees, Jaycee Wives and the Ark Pre-School for hosting the reception following the dedication of the sculpture, "A Place of Peace" Sunday, September 19. Our thanks also to the Villa Armando Winery for the bubbly and to Jerry Lapinski and the Bicentennial Band for their Disneyland selections.

The children from the Ark Pre-School in their presentation of the sculpture to Mayor Bob Philcox truly made us realize "It's a Small, Small World" and "Children Are Special."

Editor, The Times:

The Pleasanton Art League, Billie Schmer and Phyllis Wentworth wish to extend our heartfelt "Thanks" to you and especially to Jean McKenna and Lilly Ault for the marvelous coverage you gave us for "The Pleasanton Daze Street Faire."

We are happy to report that this event ended very successfully and a good share of that success is due to the undying support given us each year by you and your faithful staff.

Thank you,

Round the town

Don Givvadam does not plan to watch tonight's "Gerald and Jimmy Show, Part II."

"I know it's the presidential debates, and I appreciate my duty as a citizen to get informed," Don informed me. "But frankly, I was so disappointed in the G&J Show Part I that I simply couldn't go through it again."

Was it the breakdown of the sound system that discouraged our Don?

"Heck no," Don said, or words to that effect." The silence was the best part of the whole dad blamed two hours. What really got me was how them news persons failed in all that time to ask the one question that is on every voter's mind. I just can't imagine how they could sit there for almost two hours and not ask it."

And what, pray tell, might that one question be?

"Why are both Gerald Ford and Jimmy Carter working so hard to avoid getting elected? That's the question!"

Now, you all know that Don Givvadam is a most stable citizen. He was voted three years running as "Mr. Average American," not to mention 43 years perfect attendance at Toastmasters. He is seen at all council meetings, watches most parades and has never been known to pass up a petition. With those credentials, what in the world would make Don Givvadam think that Gerald Ford and Jimmy Carter are both working to avoid the nation's highest office?

"The facts son," he said, "just look at the facts. Jimmy Carter emerges from the Democratic convention as the heaviest presidential favorite since George Washington. Folks said, 'All Jimmy has to do is keep his mouth shut and he has the election won.' So what does he do? Jimmy goes right out and grants an interview to Playboy Magazine.! That's a death wish if I ever saw one."

True, the Playboy interview was something of a shocker. But every candidate is entitled to one slip, I reasoned.

"One slip!!" Don thundered. "You're forgetting Carter's big statement on extending federal subsidies to peanut farmers, not to mention his romance with the crooked politicians in Chicago, and then there's those unions ..."

I agreed it seemed foolish for Jimmy to make these public displays at a time when most Americans were willing to believe his 'Holier Than Most' image. Does all this mean, I asked Don, that Carter has aced himself out of the presidency?

"It would except that Gerald Ford is working just as hard to avoid that office himself. Did you notice how the polls began to show President Ford gaining on Carter?" Don noted. "And just when it looks like Gerry might take the lead ... Wham! Out comes Earl Butz with a wrong - colored - joke that is guaranteed to oust any incumbent administration. Now I ask you, you can't tell me all that was by accident!"

Was Don suggesting that President Ford actually urged Secretary Butz to tell that awful joke, just to pull down the Ford image at the polls?

"How else can you figure it? And then there's Ford's golfing partners. Mygawd, what other American would want all his golf scores of the last 35 years audited? And they claim an inside source tipped off this probe. Of course it was an inside source, probably Betty Ford, if the truth be known."

I found all this hard to believe, but looking over the events of the past few weeks, Don Givvadam's reasoning began to make sense. It got me wondering about that "technical breakdown" at the height of the last presidential debate.

"Technical breakdown my ailing aunt," Don exploded. Carter had his brother Billy snuck into the equipment room behind stage, and Billy had his orders ... 'If it looks like Jimmy is going to say something that makes sense, then cut the sound!' And sure enough, that's when the sound went off, just when Carter was prepared to make his first intelligent statement."

The seriousness of Don's analysis of the two campaigns was beginning to hit home. After all, here are the two men who were the choice of their respective parties, the winners after a long and costly primary race. Hundreds of thousands of people were lined up on either side, prepared to work, to give money, to elect their man. And now this!

"I knew it would shake you a little," Don advised me. "But I just felt it was the kind of information that could not be withheld from the American people. If we've got two candidates for the office of president who are bound and determined to avoid that job, then it's time the rest of us began to act!"

And what, pray tell, did Don have in mind?

"Decide the election in the sports arena, where all other important American decisions are made," Don Givvadam explained. "Assemble all the athletic teams into one great playoff, a sort of National Polympics."

And the winning team would then get to run our country for four years?

"Hell no," Don exclaimed. "The losing team would get to run the country. Americans have always loved the underdog. Just one problem though," Don added, thoughtfully. "I'm not sure those athletes on the nation's losingnest team would accept the presidency ... not if it meant taking a cut in pay."

Bill Cauble

Legal pot

On Sunday, California Attorney General Evelle Younger announced his belief that the state legislature will vote to completely legalize marijuana next year.

Younger sees this as a bad move. I disagree.

If carried through without special interest pressure, emotionalism or political game - playing, the legalization of pot would have major beneficial effects, especially for the average taxpayer.

Imagine the government suddenly declares that marijuana is entirely legal.

Police now have time to pursue major criminals — murderers, rapists, bank robbers — and no more precious police manhours are wasted chasing pot users, who for the most part are people with no other criminal activity.

If no pot users are arrested or cited, then the amount of paperwork to process those cases is done away with. This again includes policemen, who write their own reports during patrol hours.

Suddenly the courts have more time to devote to the overloaded docket. The right to a speedy trial is once again brought closer to reality.

No marijuana convictions, no more prisoners: Overcrowded jails will get a breather, and maybe those new facilities proposed in Hayward and Contra Costa County could be delayed a few years.

So the money saved in police, court and jail costs would mean a tremendous savings in taxes spent — taxes that could be used for low income housing, new roads, or simply returned to the taxpayers.

But it goes much deeper.

With marijuana legalized, the pusher would disappear. Why pay for something you can grow free, cheaply and easily? (Cannabis is a weed, and everyone knows weeds grow fast.)

Authorities estimate that the mafia imports most of the marijuana brought into the United States. This share of their business would be entirely wiped out by legalization, and they would hurt.

The pusher who makes his living by selling pot would become extinct. Most pushers have a criminal past and other illegal activity, so his demise would be welcomed. Not to mention the money he makes yet fails to declare for tax purposes, which is made up by you and I.

The people who steal to buy marijuana, who are often times teenagers, will no longer have to steal. Residential burglaries will decrease, and the fences who buy the burglar's stolen items will also fade away.

Because marijuana is presently illegal, those that are innocent but curious are shown the "other" side of life — jail and the hardened criminals it holds. More than one kid has walked in a pot user and walked out a well - trained check forger, cat burglar or bank robber.

The absence of pot prisoners would signal the end of those taxpayer - supported services that are now part of the system and growing rapidly — rehabilitation and counseling. This manpower (and accompanying monies) could be diverted to other, more critical areas.

Nationwide, If legal, the marketing of marijuana would become big business. Farmers could plant pot seeds in soil that would support no other crop.

New companies would hire thousands to seed, cultivate, harvest, refine, package and market the crop. The advertising industry would have a new client.

The government then could impose a heavy tax on the new blend, meaning large amounts of new tax revenues — paid for only by the users.

Forget the emotionalism surrounding pot. It is simply a weed. The U.S. Army concluded in its $300,000 study of marijuana that all it did was make the user fat.

It is proven that cigarettes cause cancer. Alcohol has been shown to be physically addictive. But no detrimental effects have ever been attributed to marijuana in a major, non - partisan study.

It's up to you.

"Everybody be quiet! I'm gonna catch up on some of my shuteyes!"

astrograph

For Wednesday, Oct. 6, 1976

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Petty issues are apt to cause you more concern than they're worth today. Important things you'll be able to handle in stride.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Look for the silver lining today. Once your attitude becomes positive, you'll find the blue skies you're searching for.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Don't fear making small concessions today to gain something larger. What seems a gamble will really be a move that pays off handsomely.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Settle the little things promptly today so you can put your mind to the major issue. It can be a day of achievement if you schedule your time wisely.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) It would be very premature to jump to conclusions today. Mull over any propositions to spot angles that escape you at first glance.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Negotiations where you use a go-between could be more fortunate than those where you deal with yourself. Pick the best intermediary.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) You are more effective on a plane consistent with your ideals than you are lowering yourself to another's level in solving problems.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Your frivolous mood of the early day will change to a more mature one when dealing with material values later.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Success comes to you today through the efforts of another. Think of accomplishments in terms of "We."

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) While you have felt that "luck" is a meaningless word to you, something fortunate may happen to you today that will change your opinion.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Try not to give worldly considerations more importance than they deserve today. Have fun by doing the things that really give pleasure.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Stay close to persons with whom you have strong emotional bonds today. You need the security of their affinity for you.

Your Birthday

Oct. 6, 1976

You may have the opportunity this coming year to meet and work with a very worthwhile individual. This person may come from a distant point.

By Oswald & James Jacoby

We have to sympathize a little with poor West. He really had a pretty good double of South's four-spade bid. He certainly had no reason to suspect that South would score an overtrick.

West opened the king of diamonds and continued by leading his singleton club.

South won with the ace and decided that West's double indicated he would hold all four spades and the ace of hearts. South confirmed this by playing his ace of trumps. Then South led his deuce of hearts. If West had ducked he would have saved the overtrick, but West took his ace and led a heart back.

South was in dummy with the king. He ruffed a diamond, led a trump and played dummy's king after West put up the 10. Then South ruffed dummy's last diamond and led his last trump. It didn't matter what West did. Dummy's two trumps were good. South discarded a club on that last trump.

Where did the overtrick come from? Everyone was down to three cards. Dummy's were the queen and two little clubs. South's were the king and a small club and the jack of hearts. East was squeezed and had to chuck his queen of hearts to keep the club stopper.

Ask the Jacobys

What does the two-spade bid in the sequence pass-pass-one club-pass-two spades mean?

It is a forcing bid. In expert circles it shows both a maximum pass and a hand such as ♠ A Q J x x x ♥ x x ♦ x ♣ K x x x. His hand has improved due to the club opening by partner.

MV romps over Cowboys

Monte Vista High School won every match in two sets in rolling to its sixth consecutive victory, 7-0, over Livermore in East Bay Athletic League tennis competition yesterday in Livermore.

The Mustangs entered the contest just one game ahead of the Pokes, but left with a 6-0 record and a firm hold on first place in the EBAL. The Cowboys dropped their second game in six outings on the season.

"We were consistent," Livermore coach Don Gabor moaned, obviously alluding to his team's two-set loses.

"I don't think anybody can touch them for the next three years maybe even four," he fearfully added.

The Mustangs, headed for a sure dynasty unless the Alamo school is washed down the hills in the near future, used three freshmen and two sophomores in their singles matches to knock off the Cowboys.

Gordon Tripp started the afternoon barrage with the only close match of the day, a 6-6, 6-3 win over Livermore's ace junior Steve Williford. Williford battled back from a 5-2 deficit in the first set before eventually falling.

"He got too far behind," said Gabor. "After being off for four matches and not touching the ball he looked pretty good," Gabor said of his prized athlete. "The next time those two meet in league it should be good."

Mustang super sophomore Doug Stone, just recently picked up from San Jose, rolled to a 6-1, 6-1 win over Steve's older brother Scott Lewis. Stone, according to Monte Vista head coach Floyd Baker, will soon challenge Tripp for the number one spot.

Guy Schalin, Dave Parker and Rick Overstreet all came away easy winners.

Schalin knocked off Livermore's Phil Newkirk, 6-2, 6-2 while Parker rolled over Todd Larson, 6-2, 6-1; and Overstreet topped Vern Cedarland, 6-1, 6-1.

In the doubles Monte Vista swept both matches. Van Scahlin and Jeff Southwick topped Paul Smith and Mark Voelker, 6-2, 6-1 while Gary and Mike Niebur beat Mark Johansen and Ken Kemp.

Gabor forsees a rough road for the rest of the EBAL teams in the future. "Tennis isn't a sport like baseball. The guy can strike out one day then face a different pitcher and get a hit. In tennis the player isn't worried about someone else messing up. It comes out the same way every time," Gabor said, referring to the depth of the Mustangs. Very rarely does anybody dump them."

And it will be a rare deed indeed if the Alamo gang is dumped this year.

In another EBAL match Amador edged Foothill 4-3. In the top-seeded match of the contest David Finn of Amador Valley topped Bob Cannon of Foothill 6-2, 6-3. The Falcons won three of the five singles matches but the Dons came back to capture both doubles tilts.

Hunters bag a few bucks

In the Bag

Don Richmond and son, Davis, with hunting buddies Don Garner and son, Donny, and his Uncle Jerry went to the upper reaches of the Walker River to harvest a few big bucks.

They hired a packer, leaving Thursday so they could set up camp and have a day of fishing before the open season on bucks on Saturday. Fishing was pretty successful. Don R. latched onto a big rainbow measuring 16 inches and weighing two pounds. There was plenty of fish for everyone, with most of them 9 to 11 inches.

Bright and early Saturday morning, the hunting party. However, it was Monday before they had the good luck to get a good mulie. Davis was the winner, and claimed a nice 130 pound buck. It was his second hunting trip, and first deer. But since Davis is only 13 years old, it was a big thrill for him.

Davis carried a bolt action rifle/257 Roberts Cal. Don Richmond had a 30/06; Don Garner a 270; Donny, a 30/06; and Uncl Jerry also an 06. All rifles were scope sighted. Davis says, "Woe! One hundred fifty yards is sure a long way, but I had the right combo!"

John Rock and Debbie Hannon left early Saturday morning to hunt in the Shasta country. About mid-morning they spotted a couple of forked-horn bucks, but passed them up. Then Debbie realized she'd left her hunting license and deer tags back in the pickup. She went after them and rejoined John, who was taking it easy, sitting on a big rocky point and glassing the canyon below.

Soon a couple of deer came into view. Debbie may have got a touch of buck fever, as she levered shells out of that model 94 like you wouldn't believe, according to John. All the shells were there on the rock beside her.

Between them, they got two bucks that were pretty far down a really steep-sided canyon. Fortunately, some other hunters came along and offered to help get the deer out of the canyon. With the use of cables, winches, and ropes they finally got them to their vehicle.

John says it took a few six-packs to show their appreciation to the other hunters, but it was worth it. So John and Debbie were headed back to Livermore Saturday afternoon with two fine bucks, a 3-pointer and a 4-pointer.

Jim and John Foscalina and Dallas Smith hunted the Levitt Peak Area. They said the area was crowded — seemed as if there were ten hunters for every deer. They were at the 10,000 ft. level and heard later that hunting was better down around 8,000 feet. Jim shoots a 7 mm Rem Mag. John prefers a 30/06 and Dallas a 270. All were bolt action rifles, all scoped. Not lucky this time, they plan to go again in a couple of weeks.

The PITA Trap Shoot at the Livermore - Pleasanton Rod and Gun Club reports a successful two-day competition October 2 and 3, with several scores of 100 straight turned in.

On October 2, results of the 16 yds, Class AA, the winner was Tommie Lee with a score of 100. Class A winner was James Jordan at 99; Class B, Jerry Vezina, 99; Class C, Laurence Lavigne, 95; Class D, Vern Stewart, 95.

Handicap winner was Leland Hieb, 95; runner-up, Charles Shelton, 95. Doubles, Class A, Joe Stella, 48; Class B, Tommie Lee, 46; Class C, Jerry Vezina, 44; and Class D, Glen Wiley, 43.

Ladies 16 yds and Handicap, Gennie Stella, combined score, 184. Sub-Junior 16 yds and Handicap, Kent Watson, combined score 184. Veteran, 16 yds and Handicap, Clarence Wilburn, combined score, 186.

On October 3, 16 yds, Class AA, Clifford Boxill, score 100. Class A, Tad Anthenien, 98. Class B, James Reed, 98. Class C, Wayne Baker, 98. Class D, Mark Hinton, 95.

Handicap winner was Gaston Marcillac, 97; and Runner-up was Dave Kelly, 97. Doubles, Class A, George Reppas, Sr., 49; Class B, Robert Uhalde, 49; Class C, Ed Valin, 45; and Class D, Barbara, 43.

Ladies 16 yds and Handicap, Jeanne Spaulding, combined score, 193. Junior, 16 yds and Handicap, Jerry Parr, combined score, 184. Veteran 16 yds and Handicap, W. J. Stone, combined score 187.

Jerry Vezine and his wife, Emily, were here from Anchorage, Alaska, about 2300 air miles from their home. They said they really enjoyed the local shoot, and thought the barbecue on Saturday was excellent. Jerry said, "Those steaks were cooked just right."

Bill McGlinchey and Joe Renteria were the two who should get credit for the delicious barbecue; they do a terrific job at the club!

Vikes, Crusaders fight to 6-6 draw

The Livermore Vikings got on the scoreboard first, via a 2-yard burst by Mark Sanchez, but had to settle for a 6-6 tie with the visiting Santa Clara Crusaders in Pop Warner football over the weekend.

The Vikings were tabbed with 110 yards in penalties to offset a 189-89 yard edge in rushing yardage. Bob Giachello punted and tackled well all evening and Bob Peterson also played well on defense.

Mark Riley recovered two fumbles and Cliff Pope another for the Vikes while Jack Trudeau interceptedSan SC pass.

The Lamorinda Demons topped the Dublin Knights, 18-12. Dublin got its first touchdown on an 82-yard kick-off return by Earl Palacios. Palacios also scored the other Dublin TD, this one on an 87-yard burst off tackle.

The injury-plagued Knights had four Members of their starting backfield sidelined, so Bill Hayes stepped in after just two nights of practice to do a respectable job.

On defense, Mike Damoulos led the way with 10 tackles while Brett Seropian and Troy Hager also did well.

The Dublin Lancers couldn't come up with a point and fell, 6-0, to the San Leandro Crusaders. The Lancers were hit with 80 yards of penalties that halted many promising drives and did little to enhance Dublin's 132-84 edge in total offensive yards.

This weekend, the Dublin Squires host the Napa Redskins at 2 p.m. at Dublin High School with the Lancers facing the 'Skins at 4 p.m. In Livermore, the Vikings meet the Pleasant Hill Rebels in a 6 p.m. game followed by the Knights versus the Eureka Condors at 8 p.m.

Foremost wins in rec volleyball

Foremost defeated Six Pack 15-8, 9-15, 15-13 in a thrilling match to highlight action in the opening round of men's volleyball action in Pleasanton Recreation Department play recently.

Greg Soule, Russ Nishikawa and Dave Holmes played well for the winners. Floyd Bueno, Dick Withoft and Greg Shields stood out on serves for the losers.

In other men's action Rexall topped Osborne Realty 15-10, 15-7, 11-15. Jim Gregory and Rick Ferry had excellent spikes for the winners. Larry Fisher, Ray Koski, Tom Carter and Orv Morrow each played well for Osborne Realty.

Pizza Arcade topped L.D.S., 15-10, 15-5, 15-9 and the defending league champs, Norms Barbershop, topped Pleasanton Valley SC, 15-10, 15-6, 15-11.

In women's recreation action Cheese Factory dropped Vista Bottle Shop, 15-6, 12-15, 15-2.

Mats rally for win

Granada rallied from an opening set defeat to take the final two sets for a close 13-15, 15-12, 15-6 victory over Livermore in East Bay Athletic League girls' volleyball action on the losers' court yesterday.

"It's hard to single out any individual," said Granada coach Ann Carummes following the total team victory. She explained the simple Granada strategy in one phase, "We wanted to stay calm and be consistent."

The Matadors accomplished that when facing near - elimination in the second set. They trailed 12-10 in the set, but some powerful serves by tiny Bittye Vierra spured the Mats to five straight points to win the set. Mary Ledezma's healthy spike on the 14th point helped greatly.

Vierra picked up where she left off in the third set, serving on the first three Granada points. Granada picked up three more points to take a 6-0 lead with Ledezma's powerful serves being the key.

With momentum clearly on the Mats' side Livermore bravely battled back behind key serves by Kim Bohannon and Paula Ng's inspiring play.

The Mats held a 8-6 lead before finally breaking away. Regina Bickers came through with four points on serves, while Lisa Bonetti scored the final point on a powerful spike.

The play of Bonetti and Lynn Kranich of the Matadors were keys to the victory, overshadowing a great effort by Livermore's Ng, who was all over the court to save lose balls.

The Matadors took a one-game lead over Livermore with the victory. The Mats have one loss.

In junior varsity competition the Cowboys remained undefeated with a 7-15, 15-10, 15-9 decision over the Matadors.

In another EBAL volleyball contest San Ramon defeated host Foothill in two sets, 15-4, 15-8.

San Ramon played well as a team, particularly in the serving. Debbie Lloyd and Jennie Cartano stood out in that department for the winners.

San Ramon is now 3-2 and the Falcons are 2-3.

The Wolf junior varsity also won, taking a three-set decision.

—Brian Martin

Poke game switched

Champs need a victory

BLOOMINGTON, Minn. — "We've got to win a game ... just one right now," says Pittsburgh Steelers Coach Chuck Noll. "My job right now is just to win again and that's becoming a problem."

The mistake-prone defending Super Bowl champions saw their record fall to 1-3 with a 17-6 loss to the Minnesota Vikings Monday night and now face a critical game Sunday when they play the Browns, 1-3, at Cleveland in an American Football Conference Central Division match.

Minnesota also faces an important game Sunday when the once-beaten Chicago Bears visit the once-tied Vikings with first place on the line in the National Football Conference Central Division.

Minnesota's 17-6 inter-conference victory over Pittsburgh Monday night left the Vikings a big favorite to capture their ninth divisional title in 10 years. Chicago appears the only challenger left as Green Bay and Detroit each have lost three of its first four games.

"Now we're playing for first place against Chicago," said Minnesota Coach Bud Grant, who usually has been playing for first place through most of his 20 years as a professional coach.

While Minnesota, 3-0-1, anxiously turned its attention toward the visit by the upstart Bears, the two-time Super Bowl champion Steelers seemed stunned and confused.

"The Super Bowl is about four million miles from the mind now," said Noll. "I haven't got the answer to the mistakes we've been making."

The Steelers, who lost the ball six times on turnovers at Minnesota, have suffered five interceptions and lost 11 fumbles in four games.

"We wanted this game bad," said Pittsburgh quarterback Terry Bradshaw. "This loss hurts more than any."

"We've crawled out of holes before," said running back Franco Harris. "We're too good not to do it again this year."

The Minnesota-Chicago game would appear to be a struggle between the two leading defensive teams in the NFC. The Bears, 3-1, have allowed 32 points in four games while Minnesota has given up 34.

"It's early in the season, but we are shooting to come out of Minnesota in first place," said Bears Coach Jack Pardee.

Dublin backs share Flecto

Dublin High School running back Jim Boulware's not greedy. Why, this week he's even sharing the Flecto Sports Award for Alameda County with his team mate, Chuck Gangnuss.

Boulware, who won the award by himself the past two weeks, earned yet another mention, dashing for 243 yards on 18 carries, including runs of 92 and 70 yards — both good for TD's.

Gangnuss, a 6-2, 170-pound senior halfback, complemented Boulware well in the Gaels' 41-20 win over California Friday night as he gained 160 yards on 15 packs. He included touchdown runs of 63, 14 and 14 yards.

Granada High School's Vance Rushing, averaging around 140 yards per game, has been a victim of circumstance this season. He's been nominated twice, but with Boulware in the way, no way.

In the Mats' startling loss to San Ramon, 14-13, Friday night, he picked up 173 yards on 15 carries, scoring both Granada TD's on runs of 57 and 21 yards.

Also missing out was Amador Valley's junior tailback Rob Flores, who has more than picked up the slack for the Dons injured backfield corps. In AV's loss to undefeated Monte Vista, he gained 179 yards on 22 carries, scoring from three and 62 yards.

In Contra Costa County, San Ramon's Troy Thomas earned a mention, but not the award, which went to Mt. Diablo running back Willie Glasper.

Glasper, a 6-1, 185-pounder who had his old school — Pacifica of West Pittsburg — closed out from under him this fall, exploded for 168 yards on only seven carries as the Red Devils scored a decisive upset of ninth-ranked Antioch, 31-6.

He scored on runs of 60 and six yards, while setting up other scores with dashes of 58 and 38 yards.

"He's just been on the verge of popping it, and he finally did," Devil coach Herb Criner said. "He's got 4.7 speed for the 40 and he's a very physical individual; he's very strong and powerful."

Criner added, "It usually takes two people to bring him down. One-on-one he gains the advantage by running over the top of somebody.

"He is a complete ballplayer."

Thomas, a Wolf sophomore forced into a hurried start by injuries that sidelined starter Guy Houston and limited alternate Jon Arnaudon, completed 14 of 26 passes for 120 yards as San Ramon upset the Mats.

Football completed another sweep of the Flecto nominees when Dane Lance, a College Park senior tailback, was put up for the prize. Lance tallied 136 yards on 26 carries, including touchdown runs of 12 and four yards. He also scored on a 54 yard pass reception.

Tri-Valley defeats Belmont

John Halleck and Bernie Bronson each scored a hat trick and had an assist as the Tri-Valley Juniors outslugged Belmont, 8-5, in Northern California Ice Hockey Association play over the weekend.

Yarmough Kaksonen added a pair of goals to complete the scoring while also picking up an assist. Kirk Thompson also had an assist.

The Juniors return to their Iceland home for a pair of games this weekend, first meeting the Triple AAA NorCal Juniors at 6:30 p.m. Saturday, before facing Sun Valley Sunday at 8:15 p.m.

Tri-Valley's Bantam A squad exploded for four goals in the first period and coasted to a 6-1 win over Santa Rosa.

Bart Schoefer's hat trick led the way while Terry Montanez, Kenny Stevens and Mark Weigan added a goal apiece. Stevens had a trio of assists to go with one feed apiece by Jim Ryberg, Ted Long, Craig Collin and Colin Warren.

Steve Robello turned back 15 Santa Rosa shots to get the win in goal.

In A Mite AA contest, Marin topped Tri-Valley, 6-4, as E.J. Rankin scored twice for the losers to go with single goals by Brian Schaeffer and Gaylin Barrow.

Marin blasted 35 shots at Tri-Valley goalie Bobby Long in the first two periods, but Tri-Valley pulled to within a goal with less than a minute to play in the game.

But a bit of strategy backfired on Tri-Valley to end all hopes of a win. The local team pulled its goalie to put an extra skater on the ice, but Marin capitalized with an empty-net goal.

In the PeeWee A game, Tri-Valley tied Santa Clara of Eastridge, 3-3.

John Keeler, Paul Redgrave and Brett Rankin had the goals off assists by George Felton, Tom Gill and Brad Smith.

David Schmitt repulsed 12 shots for Tri-Valley and got strong defensive help from Chris Huck, Frederick Omaque and Jeff Howe.

The Tri-Valley Squirt AA sextet was dumped by Sun Valley, 4-1, as Derrick Rodgers m anaged the only goal off a Greg Liggins assist. Mike Lang, in goal, had 19 saves.

Brokers gain crown

Allied Brokers, aided by four Bart Moore hits, downed Wagon Wheel, 7-2 to win the championship of the Tri-Valley slow pitch "World Series" Sunday in Pleasanton.

The Brokers erupted for five runs in the extra - inning ningth, including a base - clearing triple by Moore, to take the game from a fellow Pleasanton squad.

Wagon Wheel beat Farmers insurance of Livermore, 9-4, and dumped Dublin's Round Table Pizza, 19-3, to reach the finals.

Bob Kreider singled two times and drove in a pair of runs with a triple. J Philip Chubb, Len Ferro and Dan Nelson smacked a pair of hits each.

The tourney matched the top slow - pitch teams in the valley from the area's four major leagues.

BORN LOSER

If you think things sometimes go wrong for you, you'll feel better after laughing at "The Born Loser" each morning in The Times comics.

Livermore park holds races

Robert Livermore BMX Park has become a sanctioned National Pedal Sports Association track and will hold its first race as such Sunday, with sign-ups at 9 a.m. and races at 10:30 a.m.

NPSA members will be charged $2 to race while Livermore BMX members will be assessed $2.35 and all others $2.50.

All-non NPSA - cardholders must have written consent from his parents or guardian, proof of age — preferably a birth certificate. Each rider must be equipped with the proper safety equipment, including helmet, gloves, long sleeve shirt, pants, crossbar, frame and stem pad.

All bikes will be inspected for safety, with loose spokes, portruding axles and cracked frames case for disqualification.

Further information is available from Doug Bell at the Livermore Recreation Department, 447-7300.

Miller takes low gross in FSA golf

Times sports editor Dave Weber teamed with Oakland Raider wide receiver Mike Siani, Granada Invitational champion Bob Miller and Contra Costa Times sports editor Charlie Zeno to take fourth in the team competition at the Flecto Sports Award Scholarship golf tournament at Round Hill Country Club Monday.

Miller, a former Northgate High School star, shot a 76 to take low gross honors in the tourney. Bert Smith of Orinda shot a 70 for low net honors while Roger Pytlewski, John King, Charles Chapman and Los Angeles' Gary Clapp won the team event with a net 292.

Miller's team was 10 strokes back in the Callaway handicap event as Bob netted a 73, Siani a 75, Weber a 76 and Zeno, 78.

Pytlewski smashed the day's longest drive with a 275-yard blow while Ernie Haskins took the closest to the hole contest, landing just two and one-half feet from the hole on the 140-yard seventh.

Most of the 90 players entered contributed to the recently established Flecto Scholarship fund, which will benefit an outstanding student-athlete not awarded an athletic scholarship by a college or university.

Livermore Jaycees' event

Rare Marine Band concert set

LIVERMORE — The Livermore Jaycees are sponsoring a rare visit of the U.S. Marine Band to the Bay Area.

Two performances, at 2 and 8 p.m., are scheduled Friday, Oct. 15, at the Pleasanton Fairgrounds.

Although the band tours the country regularly, this will be the only appearance of the band in the Bay Area until 1980.

Jaycee publicity chairman Gary W. Carter said approximately 6,000 tickets are available and ticket orders are filled on a first come, first served basis.

Tickets can be obtained by mail by sending a check and return envelope to Livermore Jaycees, Box 524, Livermore 94550, attn: Marine Concert.

General admission for the one-hour matinee is $4, $2 for youths under 18. All seats for the two-hour, 8 p.m. show are $6.50.

The program includes a march, "The Chimes of Liberty" by Edwin Franko Goldman; Festive Overture, Opus 96, by Dimitri Shostakovich, arranged by band member Donald Hunsberger; a suite from "Prarie Legend" by Elie Siegmeister; Euphonium solo from "Carnival of Venice" by Herbert L. Clarke, Luke Spiros, soloist.

Also, tone poem from "Finlandia" by Jean Sibelius; "Celebrations," a bicentennial salute by band member Thomas Knox; suite of old American dances by Robert Russell Bennett, including Western One-Step, Wallflower Waltz and Rag; "Four Score and Seven," a Broadway Chronicle by Knox; the "Largo Al Factotum" aria from "The Barber of Seville" by Gioacchino Rossini, arranged by band member Daniel Tabler; and overture from "Tannhauser" by Richard Wagner.

Carter said proceeds would be used for community projects sponsored by the Livermore Jaycees.

In addition to mail, tickets can be obtained at Valley Bank on Amador Village Parkway, Dublin; Dutros' Barber Shop, First Street, Livermore; and the Marine Recruiting Station at 4th and L streets, Livermore.

Lucky DISCOUNT SUPERMARKETS WE DISCOUNT EVERYTHING Except QUALITY, COURTESY SERVICE

Lucky's goal is to reduce your food cost everytime you shop

It is a well-known fact that shopping in a discount supermarket is an important way of increasing food purchasing power. Many supermarkets claim "discount prices" but few offer true discount prices throughout a store everyday of the week.

Lucky originated True Discount Pricing on virtually every item in their supermarkets on an everyday basis (except those items controlled by law). Lucky maintains that True Discount Pricing is lowering the cost of a consumer's everyday supermarket needs without a corresponding sacrifice in quality or selection.

Chamber slate in Pleasanton

PLEASANTON — Nominations for four directorships and the second vice presidency of the chamber of commerce are being accepted.

Nominating committee chairman Ben Fernandez said the slate of candidates will be presented to the membership at their Oct. 19 luncheon. Two nominations will be offered for each directorship and the second vice presidency.

Attorney Bill Hirst, currently first vice president, will step to the presidency being vacated by Merle Telford. Present second vice president John Weisser will succeed Hirst.

Directors Jack Bras, Warren Harding, Mike Harris and Mike Hemp will vacate their three-year posts.

Lab honors machinist

Lawrence Livermore Laboratory machinist Gregg Maine (center) was recently awarded the Frank Caluwe Award by senior machinist Jim Degough as Lab Deputy Director Duane Sewell looks on. The award, given only when outstanding apprentices are identified, recognizes superior performance and potential by an apprentice during four years of state - approved training. Maine, 27, completed his training earlier in the year and is now a journeyman in the Lab's Materials Fabrication Division. Degough is chairman of the Lab's Unilaterial Apprenticeship Committee. The award is named for the late Frank Caluwe, former superintendent of Lab machine shops, who played a central role in establishing state - approved apprenticeships at the Lab.

Area teens to backpack at Big Sur

LIVERMORE — Local teenagers will backpack on an overnight excursion to Big Sur Oct. 16 and 17.

Alice Tetlow, naturalist for the Livermore Area Recreation and Parks District, will conduct the trip.

Deadline for signup is Oct. 13 at the LARPD offices, 71 Trevarno Road.

A fee of $16 will cover meals, insurance, leadership and transportation from LARPD offices. The group will leave 6:30 a.m. Saturday and return 9 p.m. Sunday.

For further information call 447-7300.

Harvest Park plans luncheon

PLEASANTON — The Harvest Park Home and School Club will host a benefit luncheon Thursday, Oct. 14 for the Authors Program at the school.

Author Ella Ellis will make a presentation at the luncheon, slated for the school library at 11:45 a.m.

A series of seven authors will visit Harvest Park this year. The program has been developed by librarian Judy Bryer.

Santa Rita inmate faces charges

LIVERMORE — A Santa Rita inmate who reportedly escaped 17 months ago was arrested in Huntsville, Texas, and faces escape charges in municipal court here.

Sherman Bailey, 25, pleaded not guilty Friday to charges he escaped from the local prison May 14, 1975 while waiting court action on various criminal counts. He had been arrested May 11, 1975 by Berkeley police in connection with assault charges.

He allegedly escaped with two other inmates, David Sears, 21, and Donald Simms, 31. Prison officials said the escapees kicked open a security screen and placed a blanket over the compound barbed wire fence to get away.

Bailey was arrested by Texas officials August 25. He is scheduled for a preliminary hearing Friday.

Unique bolo

Meet Dick Angel, resident naturalist at Sunol Regional Park of Calaveras Road, sporting his stylish new bolo tie ring especially designed and cut from petrified wood found in the Livermore hills. The bolo is in the shape of the park boundaries, and matches three others being worn by other Sunol staffers. Lithophile Joy McFate donated the petrified wood and Dave Fox cut the material to shape. The idea came from Nancy Bankhead, also a Livermore Lithophile Club member. (Photo courtesy East Bay Regional Park District)

How to find right nursing home

If you are one of the millions of Americans with an elderly relative or friend you may one day find yourself trying to select a nursing home for that person.

Choosing the right home, according to the State Department of Health, requires that you investigate, speak out and ask questions. And, according to Dr. Charlene Harrington, you can start at the State Department of Health's nearest licensing and certification division office. Dr. Harrington, who serves as division chief, points out that the facts available in nursing home inspection reports can go far toward identifying the quality of care provided by a particular facility for there you can read inspection reports pertaining to those facilites of interest to you.

The Department's Licensing and Certification Division monitors the care these homes provide for almost 100,000 elderly Californians.

Reports are available from local offices that describe almost anything affecting the health and safety of the patient. The reports include such things as whether medications are administered according to physician's orders and whether all members of the staff are qualified.

Dr. Harrington explains that individual nursing homes are required to post updated inspection reports which explain violations the home has incurred and how they plan to correct them.

"If you don't see a report posted, ask the staff to make a report available to you for it should be posted close to the administrator's office.

"Each facility must also post a patient's bill of rights. This document spells out such things as a patient's right to his clothing and to privacy with visitors or family. The patient also has a right to refuse treatment or medication."

The bill assures that a parient is free from mental and physical abuse and is treated with consideration and respect. It states that a patient must be fully informed by a doctor of his medical condition and can participate in planning medical treatment.

Foothill High gets a boost

PLEASANTON — The Foothill High athletic complex will benefit from a drawing slated for halftime of Friday night's San Ramon - Foothill football game at Amador's Patterson Field.

To lucky winners will go a 1976 Volkswagen Rabbit (grand prize donated by Bob Himsl Volkswagen of San Jose), a color television donated by Frank's TV and Appliances on Main Street, a CB radio, two steel belted radial tires from Don Perry of Central Tire in Pleasanton and a microwave oven.

Raffle tickets, priced at $1 apiece, are available from Foothill High Athletic Boosters, Foothill students or by calling 846-3570.

Though Boosters have been unable to meet their goal of having the football field lighted and bleachers in by this month, the revised goal is to have the field ready for the school's first-ever graduation in June.

A city official will preside over the drawing at halftime of Friday night's East Bay Athletic League game at Amador. Co-chair persons of the raffle are Judy Damerval and Keith Sweet.

Yvan Albert of the Boosters has also announced that letters have been sent out to Foothill parents asking support of the group's bleacher seat program.

A "Trivia Bowl" slated Thursday, Oct. 14 at Hap's Restaurant in Pleasanton will also benefit the Falcons athletic complex.

Teams representing the Foothill High Boosters (and possibly including principal Richard Carroll), the Pleasanton Lions Club and The Times will match trivia knowledge.

Admission is $1.50 and tickets will be available at the door on the 14th.

The fun program, with Ben Fernandez moderating, will start at 7:30 p.m.

4-H CLUB NOTES

Crane Ridge 4-H Club meets the first Monday of every month at 7:30 p.m. at Jackson Avenue School. Persons interested in joining the club are requested to attend the Oct. 4 meeting.

Officers for the next year are: Russ Rugid, president; Janet Volkman, vice president; Terry Wells, treasurer and Sara Volkman, secretary.

The Kottinger 4-H Club will have it's first meeting Oct. 7, at 7:30 p.m. in the Valley View School multi-purpose room.

Anyone wishing to join should attend with a parent.

Students commended

PLEASANTON — Foothill High School students Elizabeth Eby and Jan Juchau have been named Commended students in the Merit Program by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation (NMSC).

These students are among 35,000 Commended students nationwide who are being recognized for their outstanding performance on the 1975 Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test/National Merit Scholarship qualifying test. Commended students represent less than two per cent of the nation's secondary school senior class.

College Faire dates are set

DUBLIN — The Dublin High School counseling department is sponsoring a valley-wide College Faire to be held in the library and career center on Tuesday, Oct. 26 from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m.

The Faire was held at Livermore High School last year and organizers felt that a similar representation of colleges, universities and military services would be of benefit to all high schools in the area.

Purpose of the College Faire will be primarily to provide specific information about individual colleges and universities, entrance requirements, scholarships, financial aide, housing, and related information.

All valley high school students and parents are invited.

Representatives from the following schools have been confirmed:

Brigham Young, Armstron College, California College of Arts and Crafts, California Tech, Cal State Hayward, Cal State Stanislaus, San Jose State, Cal State Chico, Chabot College, Cogswell College, College of Notre Dame, Dominican College, Harvard/Radcliffe, Heald Engineering, Holy Names, Pepperdine, Schiller College of Europe, Stanford, U.S. Military Academy at West Point, U. of California, UCLA, U. of California at Santa Cruz, Army ROTC, U. of San Francisco, U. of Santa Clara, United States International U. of San Diego, Army recruiter (Project Ahead), and Wellesley College.

Christensen School

Sixth graders of Christensen Andrew N. School, Livermore are beginning their campaign on raising money for their outdoor education trip scheduled in January.

The students will be collecting newspapers and selling candy. There will be a bin for the newspapers in front of the school, 5757 Haggin Oaks Avenue, Livermore.

For further information. call 455-1008.

NEED A LAUGH?

If you require a good, hearty laugh with your cereal each morning, don't miss "Frank and Ernest" in The Times comics.

Meet 'Sister City' students

LIVERMORE — Livermore residents are invited to meet the latest group of exchange students from their sister city, Quezaltenango, Guatemala, and enjoy native dancing on Thursday night.

The exchange students will be welcomed at an informal reception in the city library, 1000 South Livermore Ave., following a short business meeting of the Sister City Organization at 7:30 p.m.

All Livermore residents are invited to attend Sister City meetings, regularly held the first Thursday of the month in the library. Further details may be obtained from Mr. and Mrs. Bill Neef, 447-5071.
